

SCOTT M RADACH

Born and raised in Cashmere Washington (north central region of the state).

Received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration, Professional Accounting from Eastern Washington University, Cheney WA 1981 (2010 NCAA Division One Football National Champions).

Worked for Agrium U.S. Inc. for 28 years as the Accounting Supervisor at four different locations; Spokane, WA, Bixby, MO, Elko Nevada, and Borger TX.

In December 2009, started working for the City of Borger as the Director Finance.

Hutchinson County United Way Board Member and Officer. (10 years)

Hobbies include bicycling, fishing, gardening, movies, and sporting events.

Married for 28 years to Sharlene Radach.

One son, Chris Radach, student at Texas State University, San Marcos, TX.

One daughter, Erica Radach, student at West Texas A & M, Canyon, TX.