

TRiO Student Support Services Application

FRANK PHILLIPS COLLEGE

The Student Support Services (SSS) Program at Frank Phillips College, Borger campus, is a federally funded TRiO Program designed to ensure the success of students who may face obstacles or are considered to be at high risk of not completing their college education. Our mission is achieved through peer and faculty mentoring, academic tutoring, financial literacy seminars, leadership and career development workshops, advice and assistance in postsecondary course selection, community involvement, cultural enrichment and transfer assistance.

To be eligible for TRiO services, a student must be first generation and/or low-income and/or have a physical or learning impairment, and documentation MUST be submitted for qualification into the program.

Priority acceptance into the program will be given to students who are motivated to take full advantage of services offered by TRiO SSS, and students who are planning to continue their education beyond FPC.
