

Scott M Radach

Scott Radach grew up in the small town of Cashmere WA, where many fruits such as apples, pears, peaches, apricots, cherries, plums and grapes were grown and processed. Cashmere is the home of Tree Top Apple Juice, and Aplets & Cotlets confectionary candies.

He is the Finance Director for the City of Borger and has been since December 2009.

From 1991 until 2008, he was the Accounting Team Lead for Agrium U.S. Inc. for the ammonia and urea manufacturing plant in Borger Texas and for the ammonium nitrate manufacturing plant in Beatrice NE. Prior to arriving in Texas, he was the Accounting Supervisor for Agrium U.S. Inc. for an open-pit Gold mine located 90 miles southwest of Elko NV from 1988 to 1991. Prior to his stay in Nevada he was the accounting supervisor for Magmont Operations and joint venture with Agrium U.S. Inc. and Dresser Industries for a 1,200-foot underground lead, zinc, and copper mine from 1986 to 1988. He started his career with Cominco American (later Agrium U.S. Inc.) head office in Spokane WA performing different accounting positions from 1981 to 1986.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Accounting degree from Eastern Washington University in 1981. He also attended the University of Washington for one year. He started his college studies at Columbia Basin College in Pasco WA as a freshman and earned his Associates degree at Wenatchee Valley College one year later.

He was appointed as member of Frank Phillips College Board of Regents in 2001, and following the retirement of Connie Moore, he was elected as Chairman in October 2013.

He has served on the Hutchinson County United Way Board as a member and officer. (10 years).

He has one son Chris and one daughter Erica, which he is extremely proud of. Both earned their Associates degree at Frank Phillips College.