

THE FPC ADVANTAGE

Frank Phillips College is a rural, comprehensive community college. Its primary mission is to provide quality educational opportunities to residents of the service area, the top nine counties of the Texas Panhandle. The college is centrally located in Borger, Texas, approximately 45 miles northeast of Amarillo. Classes are also offered at the Dumas and Hereford locations.

FPC offers students an affordable quality education through a variety of methods: traditional classroom, Internet, and concurrent enrollment. Students have a wide selection of academic, vocational, and continuing education program areas from which to choose.

The average class size of 11 students adds to the student friendly environment at FPC and provides students with more personal attention in and out of the classroom.

CAMPUS LIFE

Fun and variety do not begin to describe the range of activities and organizations available for student involvement. Student organizations include: Honors Academy, Cosmetology Club, Phi Theta Kappa, Vocational Nursing Club, Student Government Association, Art Club, Collegiate FFA, Education Club, Pre-Medical Career Club, Student Senate, and The Plainsmen Post.

In addition to organizations and student sponsored functions, the FPC Athletic Program offers competitive collegiate play in men's and women's basketball, cheerleading, women's volleyball, women's softball, men's baseball, rodeo, and livestock judging.

FPC COSMETOLOGY CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

The Cosmetology Program is designed to incorporate the theory and laboratory experiences required to achieve the basic competencies necessary for men and women to achieve a career in cosmetology. Students are introduced to the most current techniques based on the National Cosmetology Association Trend Releases.

Frank Phillips College is dedicated to providing each student with competencies that will meet the demands of today's full-service salons. Satisfactory completion of the total required hours of instruction entitles the student to a certificate of completion. The issuance of this certificate is considered evidence that the holder is qualified to take the examination given by the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation.

The capstone experience for this program of study is the State Board of Cosmetology Exam. Individuals passing the State examination qualify to practice as licensed cosmetologists in the State of Texas.

The FPC Cosmetology Department also offers Continuing Education classes for Instructor's Course.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The market for cosmetologists is expanding as the general population increases and working women seek out cosmetic services more frequently. Cosmetologists may specialize in hair design, cutting, perming, coloring, and/or makeup.

Although many cosmetologists are self-employed as stylists, business opportunities are also available in the following areas of occupation:

- Beauty Consultant
- Cosmetology Supply Distributor
- Cosmetology School Instructor
