

JOHN MARK DAVIS

WELDER

ACADEMIC:

Borger, Texas: Borger High School - Graduate of 1970

Amarillo, Texas: Amarillo College School of Vocational Arts; Industrial Welding Technology Graduate of 1972 2520 hours

Borger, Texas: Frank Phillips College - Emergency Medical Technician

Amarillo, Texas: Panhandle Emergency Medical Services System - EMT - Special Skilled - 1984

Amarillo, Texas: Amarillo College - Paramedic Technology 4013 - 1988. (Dean's Honor Roll)

GENERAL EXPERIENCE:

Present: Frank Phillips College, Borger Texas; employed as Coordinator Welding Technology

Job Duties: Coordination of welding instructors, inventories of equipment and supplies, building maintenance, registration, advising, evaluating new technologies, and other duties as required.

Previous: Frank Phillips College, Borger Texas; employed as Welding Instructor

Job Duties: Provide personalized instruction for students currently in the welding program to enhance and further develop their skill levels with a special emphasis on safety. Provide instruction in the proper use and care of all types of welding machines and processes. Add to and maintain the physical plant as time permits. Teach classroom classes in Metallurgy, Pipe and Plate Layout, Pipe Fabrication and Safety as needed. Assist lead instructor coordinator as required.

ConocoPhillips, Borger Refinery, Borger, Texas 79007

Employed as maintenance welder. Qualified for the welding of carbon steel, its alloys, ferrous and non-ferrous metals using the SMAW, GTAW, GMAW, and FCAW processes.

Job Duties: Layout, cutting, fitting and welding of shop fabrications and field installation of piping and structures within the petrochemical-chemical complex. Repairs of both in service and shutdown equipment ,to return it to operational status.

Other: Fish Engineering and Construction, Inc. at the Phillips - Philtex Plant; Borger, Texas and Brown and Root Inc., Fossil Power Division; Celanese (Hoescht) Plant, Pampa, Texas. Employed as a Pipe Welder; Class AA and Pipe Construction Crew Foreman. Certified for the welding of Boiler Coded equipment and vessels and ASME pressure vessels of carbon steel, ferrous and non-ferrous metals.

INSTRUCTIONAL EXPERIENCE

Texas Department of Health Instructor and Course Coordinator for EMT Classes through Frank Phillips College; Continuing Education. 1981 - 1990.

Instructed rescue classes in conjunction with Texas A&M at Dumas, Floydada and Vernon, Texas for the last nine years; 15 classes; 120 hours of instruction.