

Lisa R. Duncan

Assistant Professor of Biology, Frank Phillips College | 806-457-4200 x246 | lduncan@fpctx.edu

Education

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN BIOLOGY December 2017
University of Nebraska - Kearney, Kearney, NE
57 Graduate Hours in Biology

BACHELOR OF GENERAL STUDIES May 2005
West Texas A&M University, Canyon, TX

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS August 2004
Frank Phillips College, Borger, TX

Teaching Experience

Assistant Professor of Biology August 2016 - Present
Frank Phillips College, Borger, TX
Biology for Science Majors 1-2, Microbiology for Science Majors, Microbiology for Non-Science Majors, Anatomy & Physiology 1-2, Nutrition & Diet Therapy 1

College Committees

Academic Standards Committee 2017 – Present
Retention Plan Management Committee 2017 – Present
SACSCOC Reaffirmation Committee 2018 – Present

Conferences Attended

Annual Gateway Course Experience Conference (Gardner Institute) March 2018
Co-presenter: "Getting Serious: Outcomes of a Purposeful Intrusion Strategy for Pre-Nursing Students in the First Semester of Anatomy and Physiology"

2018 Faculty Leader Conference (Texas Community College Teachers Association) Sept. 2018

Memberships

National Association of Biology Teachers
Texas Association of Biology Teachers

Fields of Interest

Parasitology, Public & Global Health Issues, Evolutionary Biology

Community Involvement

Tri-City Music Concert Association Board Member
Borger, Texas
High Plains Helping Hand, Inc. Board Member - Secretary
Borger, Texas