

Kenny Morrison

Kenny Morrison spent majority of his youth growing up in Ponca City, OK, with one year in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and 2 ½ years in London, England. After graduating from Ponca City High School (in 1986), Kenny attended college at Oklahoma State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemical Engineering (in 1991).

Kenny married his wife in 1990, and they have two children: Colter – born in 1999, and London – born in 2007. Kenny's personal interests focus on his family, and include sports, the outdoors, scouting and travel.

Kenny started work for Conoco (now Phillips 66) right out of college and has served in a variety of capacities for this company during his career. He has been a resident of Borger since 2008. Prior to living here, he has lived and worked in Ponca City, Oklahoma (twice) and Denver, Colorado.

Kenny is a strong supporter of, and very involved in the community. He serves on the Board of Regents for Frank Phillips College since 2018, is on the Executive Board for the local Boy Scout Council, is a Director for Borger Federal Credit Union, on the Board for the Borger Country Club, and serves as a Deacon at Faith Covenant Church.
