

Dawn L. George

dgeorge@fpctx.edu

Profession Overview

- Experienced Assistant Professor practiced in developing and teaching classes in English composition and Literature. Amiable dedicated professional committed to student engagement and learning.

Education

MASTERS OF ARTS | 2010 | WEST TEXAS A&M

- Major: English

BACHELOR OF ARTS | 2007 | WEST TEXAS A&M

- Major: English

Summary of Skills

- Classroom Management
- Online instruction experience
- Online class development
- Distance Learning experience
- Dual Credit experience

Professional Experience

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH | FRANK PHILLIPS COLLEGE | AUGUST 2010 - PRESENT

- Support students in English composition and Literature classes.
- Utilize a variety of technologies and instructional methodologies to engage student during learning.
- Work with individual students to improve understanding and writing skills
- Provide on-line instruction in English composition and Literature courses
- Instruction and management of high school concurrent enrollment students

QUALITY ENHANCEMENT PLAN DIRECTOR | FRANK PHILLIPS COLLEGE | 2011 - 2015

- Oversight and implementation of QEP “Writing Matters”
- Recommended and implemented adjustments from assessment data to achieved desired student outcomes.
- Regularly disseminated information on “Writing Matters”

CURRENT COMMITTEES

- ACADEMIC STANDARDS COMMITTEE