

Andrew Lackey

Welding Instructor

Andrew Lackey

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Education

La Mesa Community School

05/1993 Belen NM

Graduated with diploma

TVI

08/2004-05/2005 Albuquerque NM

Graduated with welding certificate

Western New Mexico University

08/2006-05/2008 Silver City NM

Graduated with Bachelors of Applied Science (CTTE)

Central New Mexico College

05/2010-08/2011 Albuquerque NM

Project management

West Texas A&M

08/2012-05/2014 Canyon TX

Secondary Education, Math (post bachelors program)

Experience

Perryton High School / Welding Instructor

08/2014 - PRESENT, Perryton TX

Teach 90+ students welding, Dual credit instructor through Frank Phillips, order material and consumables, input grades for high school and college, time management, project management, collaborate with FPC welding instructors, curriculum design and planning

The Works / Body Man

09/2012-06/2013, Amarillo TX

Assemble/disassemble autos, pre autos for paint, body work and primer, color sand and buff finished autos

Products Unlimited / Shop Fabricator

06/2011-03/2012, Amarillo TX

Fabricate metal doors and frames to customer/factory specs, Install various doors, frames and hardware, receiving and shipping and delivery, coordinate with other contractors and business personnel, inventory management

Certificates and Licenses

ICAR, Welding certificate, NM teacher license (7-12) NM substitute teacher, Texas teacher license (6-12), welder performance certification, Handle with Care certification