150-200 word message to students about your philosophy in teaching or a welcome – whatever you can live with for the next millennium because this is on the internet. It's a good recruiting tool, so think carefully about the message you sent to students.

I believe that, in order to be successful in business, there needs to be an unshakable foundation on which to grow. Here at Frank Phillips College, this is the experience that ~~is~~ we strive to instill in our students.
