Course Overview

A unique and comprehensive proprietary course focused on building the communication skills of law enforcement professionals to adequately conduct objective interviews/investigations during their daily public encounters. With focus on establishing and improving an officer's communication skills, this course delivers an in-depth look into proper evaluation of behaviors exhibited by both officers and citizens essential to establishing objective encounters. The techniques and approaches delivered enables any new or seasoned law enforcement professional to productively analyze, interpret, and evaluate dialogue during face-to-face encounters to minimize miscommunications, misinterpretations, and false analysis of responses by understanding factors that affect law enforcement/citizen interactions. Understanding communication essentials enables officers to de-escalate potential problematic situations/ hostile encounters, minimize vicarious liability issues as well as citizen complaints, and conduct non-biased objective investigations, by properly detecting deceptive responses that may be present. The course enables officers to understand cultural attributes, communication styles, and delivers a logical approach to analyzing human behaviors.

Topics Include

- Mastering Communication Techniques
- Basic and Advanced Communication Components
- Rapid Analysis of first encounters
- Properly identifying problematic feedbacks
- Effective communication adjustment techniques
- Understanding Communication Modality
- Identifying Deceptive Responses
- Overcoming Misunderstandings and miscommunications
- Anxiety vs. Deception
- Effective Articulation and Testimony Tactics
