ABOUT FAYS

What does the program do?

The Family and Youth Success (FAYS) program helps families deal with everyday struggles. Local FAYS programs work to make families stronger. They help youth learn to overcome challenges and develop and succeed in healthy ways.

MORE INFO

Who do we serve?

The Family and Youth Success program serves families with children who are 0–17 years of age.

How does it help?

- ★ Develops family communication skills to help you talk more as a family to build positive family dynamics.
- ★ Encourages youth to care more about school and make better grades.
- ★ Increases happiness and social and emotional health.
- ★ Develops skills to build positive relationships with friends.
- ★ Encourages responsible youth through promoting positive behavior changes.
- ★ Builds confidence in both youth and parents.

"It works. And they know how to work with people in different situations and can help find out the best way to help your family."

– FAYS program participant
